Bolton Convenience Store Robbed

Sheriff's Deputies are looking for three men who robbed a convenience store in the Bolton area today.

A clerk told Sheriff's detectives just after 8 A.M. one man, armed with a pistol, entered the FNG Quick Stop at 9508 Millington-Arlington Road. The clerk was attacked and then forced to hand over money from the cash register. She was not seriously injured.

Another suspect stood outside and the third man waited in the getaway vehicle. After the robbery, the suspects took the store's surveillance video.

The robbers left in a white car, with a partial tag letter of "N." The car went west on Millington-Arlington Road towards Brunswick.

Deputies say the men appeared to be in their twenties to early thirties. No clothing description was available.
