SCSO Makes Arrest in Narcotics Case that also nets several Assault Weapons
On 1/16/2013, detectives with the Sheriff’s Office Narcotics Division executed a search warrant at a residence on the 1900 block of Cloverdale Drive naming Kristen Miller as a suspect. During the course of the investigation, it was discovered that Miller was in possession of several assault rifles. As a precautionary measure, Miller was stopped in his vehicle shortly after leaving his residence on a traffic stop. Miller, who is a convicted felon, advised that there was a gun in the vehicle and multiple firearms at his home.

Miller was transported back to his residence where detectives conducted a search with the following results; An indoor marijuana grow (14 pounds), one Remington 870 12ga pump action shotgun, one Remington 1100 12ga automatic shotgun, one Special Ops Tactical SOT 15 Multi .556 caliber assault rifle, one U.S. Carbine .30 caliber rifle, one Taurus .357 Magnum, one SKS 7.62x39 assault rifle, one Smith & Wesson .38 Special revolver, one Mossberg 12ga pump action shotgun, one Remington 870 Tactical 12ga pump action shotgun and a Romarm CUGR 7.62x39 assault rifle equipped with two high capacity magazines and a 100 round drum.

Miller was charged with Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Deliver/Manufacture or Sell, Possession of Firearms in the Commission of a Dangerous Felony, Theft of Property under $500.00 and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.
